

Monuments and Audience

The International Research Network Runes, Monuments and Memorial Carvings Workshop 2013 April 8th – 9th 2013

(Optional Fieldtrip April 10th-11th)

Workshop Programme

Monday April 8th

9.30 – 9.45 Registration

9.45-11.15 Session 1: Monuments and their Intended Audience (Part One)

1. Victoria Whitworth - Sermons in Stone? Author and Audience at Barwick-in-Elmet, West Yorkshire
2. Roger Stalley - The cross of the scriptures at Clonmacnoise: context and meaning
3. Marjolein Stern - Runestones and their Audiences

11.15 - 11.30 Coffee

11.30 – 1.00 Session 2: Monuments and their Intended Audience (Part Two)

1. Lilla Kopár - The 'Secular' Nature of Viking Age Sculpture in England
2. Heidi Stoner - Power in Stone: Monumental depictions of Majesty and Might
3. Bethan Morris - 'Sticks and Stones: literacy, symbols and monuments in Pictland and beyond'

4. Martin Goldberg - Carving Pictish symbols – conventions and competence

1.30-3.00 Lunch

3.00 – 4.30 Session 3: Space and Audience

1. Kelly Kilpatrick - Latin, Runes and Pseudo-Ogham: The Enigma of the Hackness Stone
2. Sally Foster - Connecting people, places and things: insights from the duplicated world
3. Elizabeth Royles – Displaying Monuments in Museums: methods, issues and reactions.

6.00 – 6.30 – Reception at St John’s Church and viewing of stone sculpture

6.30 – 7.30 Keynote address, St John’s Church

Howard Williams - Captivating and Captive Audiences: Sensing Stone Sculpture.

8.30 Optional Conference Meal at Chez Jules

Tuesday April 9th

9.30 – 11.30 Session 4 Papers: Landscape and Audience

1. Cecilia Ljung - Guð hialpi sial hans – Memorials and possible audiences at early Christian cemeteries in central Sweden
2. Joanne Kirton – Monuments, location and orchestrated audience engagement at sculptural sites in Cheshire, England.
3. Lydia Carstens – The Mound and the Word: a need for monuments in times of change.
4. Alexander Andreef – Gotlandic Picture Stone Sites

11.30-11.45 Coffee

11.45-12.30 Early Career Panel/ Network Planning

12.30-1.30 Lunch

2.00 – 5.00 Local fieldtrip visiting crosses of the Wirral (optional)

Participants make their own dinner plans